Animal Causes Much Excitement in St. Johns, N. B.

ST. JOHNS, N. B. Aug. 25,-A big cow moose spent an exciting day in this city of 60,000 inhabitants.

Bright and early the moose landed then turning back from the water, at the Strait shore, above the city, and passed up Sheriff street, down the main street and along Paradise row, A big crowd following the moose seemed to disturb her little. Her voyage of sightseeing in town was made at a placid and unconcerned galt. She looked about at houses and shops. She stayed a long time in Spring street, all unmolested by the citizens.

Finally the moose started through charlotte street, where amazed mertheir shop windows. At King square the moose took a dainty lunch from the ornamental shrubbery. By this time the crowd at her heels made her somewhat nervous and she trotted down Spring street to the lower part of the city. Here she rambled about until afternoon, when tired out and dripping with perspiration she lay down at the Battery, the lowest point of the city. Boys then began to torment the moore. Her condition excited the pity of Patrick Mooney, who ordered one of his teamsters to put her into a cart, drive her out into the country and liberate her. The weary creature made no resistance and rested content in the wagon until she was in sight of the woods. Then she trotted away to freedom. Mr. Mooney took several pic-tures of the animal and a hundred kodaks in town made snap-shots of her in the course of her wanderings.

Mother's Comfort.

Little Pearl's baby sister had died before it was a week old, and sorrow reigned in the home. Pearl had not seen much of the new baby, but was just as grieved as the rest of the household.
After the funeral, however, she seemed to think it was her duty to comfort her mother, who was much shocked one day to her Pearl say in the most serious of tones:

tenes:
"Mamma, I wouldn't cry if I was you,
I think God only sent that baby on ap-proval, anyway."-Lippincott's
